The new face of "Le Duc de Praslin"

Hotel Le Duc de Praslin has made its final review with regards to the hotel's opening date. Construction is well underway but all parties concerned have estimated that the hotel will now be open in 2 stages.

From the 01st September 2008:

All rooms, reception and swimming pool will be ready. This means that all bookings will now be on bed and breakfast only for the month of September.

Clients will have access to the beach seafood a la carte restaurant "Café des Arts" for breakfast.

The main Restaurant will open on 01st October 2008.

Frégate Island - A Private Island home...

For sometime now, the Management of Frégate Island Private was in discussion with the Six Senses with regards to managing the Resort & the Island.

Finally it has been decided that Frégate Island Private will remain independent and will be run under the current management team!

Le Méridien Fisherman's Cove

Le Méridien Fisherman's Cove advised that maintenance work on their sea wall and the interior refurbishment work at the fine dining restaurant 'Le Bourgeois' and the 'Sunset Bar' have been completed and well ahead of the said date.

This means that the left wing of the Resort has been fully operational since Monday 09th of June 2008, including the A La Carte Restaurant 'Le Bourgeois' with an exciting new fine dining menu, upgraded wine list including special French wines 'Grands Crus'.

Constance Hotels Experience

Constance Hotels Experience is expanding and a number of new and exciting projects are coming up in the very near future.

Constance Ephelia Resort in the Seychelles, Constance Halaveli Resort and Constance Moofushi Resort in the Maldives as well as another project in Madagascar are just a few of the wonderful projects worth mentioning for now.

The company is also introducing a Central Reservations Office from the 1st July 2008 to manage the rooms reservations under the Constance Hotels Experience brand name. This will enable a smoother reservation process.

Mrs Imelda Jorre de St Jorre, the former Resident Manager of Constance Le Prince Maurice Hotel has been appointed as Central Reservations Manager. Mrs De St Jorre will be assisted by Mr. Jérôme Darrey, former Reservations Manager of Constance Lemuria Resort of Praslin. A dynamic team with members from different Constance Hotels Experience's properties have joined them to synergize the project.
